RESOLUTION 17-03, HONORING BERG AND ALT

The Santa Cruz Port Commission passed Resolution 17-03 at its regular public session on Tuesday, January 24, 2017, honoring two Crow's Nest employees, Jessica Berg and Adrian Alt, for their heroic, selfless actions which saved the lives of two individuals at the Santa Cruz Harbor.

On January 7, 2017, a couple drove their vehicle down the Santa Cruz Harbor launch ramp and into the water. Crow's Nest employee Jessica Berg witnessed the incident and contacted 911 and notified other Crow's Nest employees. Crow's Nest employee Adrian Alt bravely jumped into the water to rescue the couple and successfully brought the female passenger safely to shore. Both passengers survived the incident with the aid of Jessica's quick thinking and Adrian's courageous actions.

The Santa Cruz Port District and the entire harbor community recognize and honor their heroism and selflessness. Thank you, Jessica and Adrian.

DREDGING UPDATE

ENTRANCE DREDGING

Harbor staff is working to address the sand and debris that entered the entrance channel during the recent storms and high surf in January. On January 23, 2017, the harbor declared an emergency with the Monterey Bay Air Resources District to ensure maximum flexibility for the disposal operation. The dredge crew is actively working to restore a 12' depth in the channel to facilitate safe passage.

Progress has been hampered by the large amount of debris (wood and garbage) brought in by the January storms. While the harbor is advising mariners not to transit the entrance channel, it is not closed to vessel traffic. Some vessels have transited along the east jetty during high tides and calm seas.

Prior to transiting the entrance, please view the current entrance sounding on our website. Furthermore, the harbor recommends that all mariners check the weather and tides and know what their vessel draws to ensure safe transit.

NORTH HARBOR DREDGING

Maintenance crews plan to resume dredging the north harbor as soon as access is restored to the offshore disposal pipeline, which was buried during the high surf events in January. Dredging in the north harbor is permitted through February 28, 2017.
